Paul Rusling writing on Facebook:

Sad to hear this morning that Radio 270 DJ DAVID SINCLAIR has passed away. He was well known on 270 for his smooth style and very popular with the ladies in Yorkshire and the North East. He was one of the recruits from Radio Essex.

Andy Cadier (Martin Kayne) writing on Facebook:

We have just heard from Canada about the death of former Radio Essex, presenter David Sinclair. He became best known for his in-depth knowledge of the big bands from the 30s and 50s. Details of his radio career are to be found on the Pirate Radio Hall of Fame website. A most talented and likable man and so very modest too. RIP David.
