

Today December 2nd 2011, I received the sad news that on Friday November 25th Secco Vermaat died.

During the last few years he already had severe health problems and his friend Peter Burghouwt mentioned that he passed away in a friendly way in his own beloved home. Secco will be cremated on December the 8th in The Hague.

And that was exactly the place I met Secco Vermaat for the very first time at the Van Hoogendorpstreet, where Caroline as well Radio Mi Amigo studios were situated in late 1972 and 1973. Secco, also in those days the owner of some cinemas, presented his own programs for some time on Radio Mi Amigo.

During the last decades Secco shared his love for all kind of information about his love for circuses and even had his own weblog during the past years.
